I am unlocking many things to you so that you can unlock my people in many ways from tradition and some old ways of doing things.

My promotions are on the horizon, and many will flow in rivers of revelation that I will release through your apostolic ministry.

I have trained you over the years. Get ready and much more is about to come. I have trained certain people for many years to receive what I am now releasing through you.

Many Christians are about to raise up from routine living to daily resurrection power being released in their lives.
Promotion after promotion is flowing in the atmosphere around my people now.

Let the supernatural flow. I'm calling you to be a bolder and bolder in releasing my power in the earth realm. This is not paperwork, no my sons and daughter.
This is prayer at work.

Punching holes in bags, in the bags of the enemy who have been holding back you're blessing for a long time.

But my cry unto you, let the blessing flow. Let the blessing flow. Let the blessing flow.

Your blessing cannot be held back no more. I will cut down every tree that blocking your way. I remove every mountain that is hiding your freedom.
