

Prophecy

Apostle Thompson

They're getting around the tree. Everything is free. Run and fly for you're about to see and have more.

It's time for every good thing to triple in your life as you flow in the Trinity. Grace, love, power and glory are overtaking every situation in your life. Now!

Lord, I don't mind, for it's time for me to receive what I believe is mine.

Unwrapping the Trinity that is in me will connect me with the infinity of God.

You are about to turn over and over again in blessings that you have never seen before, through salvation, transformation and revelation, you will now begin to live the glory lifestyle.
